Conditions of children homes

1368.SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWEMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that in the absence of a centralized system among the social welfare departments of the States and Union Territories to trace families of children residing in children homes in Delhi and other States, these children homes are bursting at seams and also lack basic facilities, thus defeating the very purpose of having congenial atmosphere for development of such unfortunate children; and

(b) if so, whether Government are thinking of issuing any guidelines to be followed by the States so that overall conditions of childrens homes could be gradually improved over a period of time?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRI NAGMANI): (a) and (b) The State Governments/Union Territory Administrations have responsibility of providing for management of children homes and repatriating the children back to their families in coordination with other States Government/Union Territory Administrations concerned.The repatriation is sought to be carried out by State Government through their various Departments with the cooperation of voluntary organizations working in the area.
